U.S. Department of State Expedites Student Visa Processing

Posted by Daniel M. Kowalski

"All U.S. embassies and consulates expedite visa processing for foreign students to ensure qualified students are able to begin their academic program on time. Worldwide, the maximum wait for a student visa appointment is fewer than 15 days. Foreign students can apply for their visas up to 120 days before their academic programs begin. We always encourage all visa applicants to apply early." - DOS, Nov. 14, 2011.
