Visa Law Group creates strategic partnership with Dubai-based CLS Group

December 11, 2009

Visa Law Group announced today the strengthening of a strategic partnership with CLS Group, an internationally recognized business and immigration law firm headquartered in Dubai, UAE. This strong alliance builds upon nearly two years of outstanding collaboration between the two firms.

Led by Sam M. Bayat, Esq., B.Sc, L.L.B., a Quebec licensed attorney who started the Dubai practice in 1992, CLS Group has a long track record of success in the larger Middle East region. The firm's expertise includes immigration, business and investment.

"I am delighted to advance this strategic alliance with Sam Bayat and his outstanding Dubai-based law firm" stated Visa Law Group's managing partner, David M. Morris, Esq.

"We have worked closely with CLS over the past two years and have together helped many clients in the area of US-based immigration" quoted Morris who further stated "The CLS team provides an exceptional level of customer service and holds an unmatched reputation for excellence, we look forward to building a stronger alliance."

On Monday, December 14, CLS and Visa Law Group will co-host an immigration seminar titled "EB-5 Immigrant Investor Visa" at the Burjuman Arjaan by Rotana Hotel in Dubai.

Visa Law Group, headquartered in Washington DC, is a national law firm practicing exclusively in the area of United States immigration and visa law. They provide premium quality immigration counseling to businesses and professionals involved in science, technology, engineering, arts, entertainment, commerce, trade, investment, and more.
